

The Hon. Robt. Todd.
P. O. to Rico

191 Stuyvesant Place
Tombkinsville
S. C.

Dear Friend; I had all preparations made to sail for P. O. to Rico two weeks ago, but at the last minute was prevented on account of poor health, my heart is very weak and the Doctor did not think it advisable for me to go alone, so will have to wait till I get strengthened up a little. I would be so glad if it could be settled without any going down. If they do not hurry matters up the final thing, the courts will be closed for the summer. Do let me hear from you as to cause of delay this time.

With kind regards from all,
Sincerely Yours

Emma R. Vidal

Mrs. Emma R. Vidal,
191 Stuyvesant Place,
Tompkinsville, S.I., N.Y.

My dear Mrs. Vidal:-

Just after writing you, I received advise from the Clerk of the Supreme Court, that one of the cases had been decided, namely: the one of the heirs of the second wife; the Supreme Court confirming the decision of the low Court. This morning I have been advised by telephone, that the Court also decided yesterday, at a late hour, the appeal brought by Isidro and other heirs against the decision of the District Court; the higher Court confirming the decision rendered by the low Court. This ends the litigation.

The entire batch of documents will be sent down to the District Court to enforce its decision and I will notify you of development, which will now be speedy.

If I should need any advise from you, or document for sale or settlement, on account of the minority of one of your children, I will notify you.

With best regards, believe me to remain,

Yours very sincerely,
