"I have the honor to report that last night I had word that a murder had been committed in the mountains & dispatched Lt. French and Pvt. Rance & James and ponies at once - after one hour ride they captured the murderer. This man has made his living by robbing people in the mountains carrying a knife & threatening to kill them if they did not give him their property.

he has been arrested four times before once for stealing & once for cutting a man but as the Spanish laws are so lax the natives do not seem to fear the penalty & continue to cut and stab. The heaviest penalty for this offense is eight years and he would perhaps be pardoned after six years of that sentence. The man that was killed was a good hard working
