My dear Mr. Hurrey:

I avail myself of this first opportunity to thank you very heartily for all the kindness and courtesies shown to me by you and your friends while I was in New York. I also want to ask you to convey to Mr. Mc Alpin, Mr. Coxhead and other friends my appreciation of all that they did and as I said at the Luncheon, I take this not as a personal honor to me but as one who was representing his country while in the States.

By separate cover I am sending you "The Times" which had something about the luncheon given in my honor in the "University Club".

Thanking you again for all your kindness, I beg to remain,

Very cordially yours,
