The receiver of this Message can have it repeated from the original Station to rectify any supposed error, by depositing the ordinary tariff a fresh Message and Reply, which will be immediately refunded if the repetition shows any error to have occurred in the original transmission.

For Conditions on which Messages are Transmitted see back.

CONDITIONS ON WHICH THE COMPANY TRANSMIT MESSAGES.

The Company may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the Sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the Company or its Servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the Company, they will refund the amount paid by the Sender for such Message.

The Company shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount to be refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such non-transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the Company over the Message shall be deemed to have entirely ceased for the purposes of these Conditions at any point where, in the course of the transit of the Message to its destination, it may be entrusted by the Company (and the Company shall have full power so to entrust the Message) for further transmission by or through any system, service, or line of Telegraph belonging to or worked by any administration or authority not controlled by the Company exclusively, although worked as part of or in connection with the Telegraphic system or service of the Company.
