

State of Illinois,
Office of The Governor,
Springfield.

June 25, 1920.

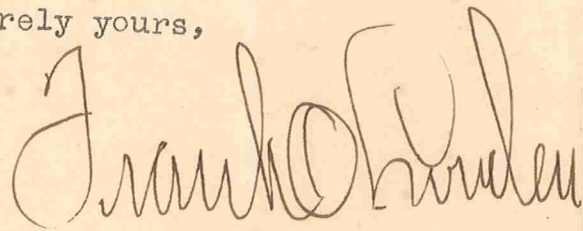

My dear Mr. Todd:

I am writing this note to express my deep appreciation of your support in the recent convention. I am just as grateful to you for your friendship as though I had won. The ticket named is a good one, and we must now all unite to make it a winning one.

I sincerely trust that you will let me see you if you should ever find yourself in my vicinity.

With all good wishes, I am, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Frank B. Rowden". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed closing.

Honorable Robert H. Todd,

San Juan, Porto Rico.

State of Illinois,
Office of The Governor,
Springfield.

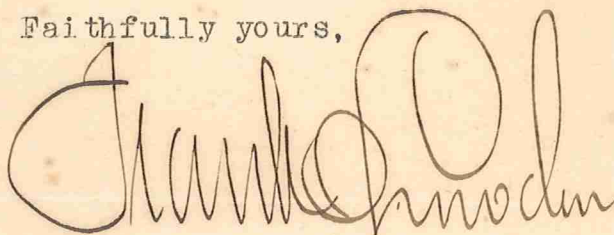

November 26, 1920

My dear Mr. Todd:

I am just in receipt of your letter of November 17. I shall be glad to do anything I possibly can for the Honorable Emilie del Toro. I have the utmost confidence in anyone you might recommend.

Always,

Faithfully yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Frank D. Rowland". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed name "Frank D. Rowland".

Honorable R. H. Todd,

De San Juan, Puerto Rico