

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
PORTO RICO

MEMORANDUM

Nov 11/92

Suggestion made by Hayne about a Vice-Governor
to preside the Senate,
accepted by all.

Iglesias suggests that when the Senate rejects the Confirmation of a nomination made by the Governor, the latter
then may send back
the same name and
the Senate then will take another vote on Confirmation and if
rejected again the
matter goes to the

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
PORTO RICO

MEMORANDUM

President for final decision.

He also suggests that both ^{the} Attorney General & the Com^{missioner} of Education be placed on the same plane
with other heads of Department in regard
to appointments, namely:
appointment by the Governor instead of the President.

Dykes also calls
attention to the existing

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
PORTO RICO

MEMORANDUM

law prohibiting a Candidate to be
on more than one
electoral ticket,
and which law
~~should~~ should be abolished.

To do - About the appointment of Gaudin Lodron as acting Asst. Commissioner of Agriculture & Labor
Borner - To embody
into our organic Act
the general provision

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
PORTO RICO

MEMORANDUM

prohibiting the Island
from lending help,
in the way of bonds,
etc, to any public
Service Corporation

Hartzell: About
the Public Service
Com. being composed of a few
experts instead
of by the Heads of Depart. as today,
these Commissioners
to be appointed by

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
PORTO RICO

MEMORANDUM

to delegate to the Municipalities the right to impose
certain taxes.
Also see into the loading ~~of~~
money from the
Insular Government
to the Municipalities
Also the ~~pledging~~
the good faith
of the People of P.R.
for Municipal loans

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
PORTO RICO

MEMORANDUM

the President.

To do. About the duplication of
bookkeeping accounts
in all the Departments which shall be overlaid and
placed in one
bureau or department, such as the
auditor.

Hartwell - Thinks
that the Legislature
should be prohibited