Hon. R. H. Todd,
Congress Hall Hotel,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Todd:

The post office at Adjuntas, Porto Rico, was advanced to the third class on January 1, 1921, necessitating the appointment of a postmaster for a four year term. I shall be pleased to give careful consideration to any statement which you may desire to submit relative to the appointment of a postmaster for this office.

Very truly yours,

Hulbert Wood
First Assistant Postmaster General.

Hon. Hubert Work,
First Assistant Postmaster General,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Dr. Work:

In reply to your communication of the 29th ultimo stating that the post office at Adjuntas, Porto Rico, was advanced to the third class necessitating the appointment by the President of a postmaster for a four year term, and that you would be pleased to give careful consideration to any statement which I might desire to submit relative to the appointment of a postmaster for said office; I beg leave to recommend the name of Juan Aparicio Rivera for appointment to said office.

Very truly yours,
