

April 10th, 1922.

Honorable E. Mont. Reilly,
Governor of Porto Rico,
SAN JUAN, P. R.

My dear Governor:-

Complying with your request of March 23, 1922, regarding the advancement of the Post Office at Quebradillas, to the third class, necessitating the appointment of a Postmaster by the President for a term of four years, as per letter of the Department of March 16, 1922, I beg to recommend the name of FELIX PRIETO HERNANDEZ, of Quebradillas, for such an appointment. This young man is a well educated fellow, knows English and has office experience.

I find that the present incumbent was recommended to office by the Resident Commissioner at Washington.

Respectfully,

April 10th, 1922.

Honorable John H. Bartlett,
First Assistant Postmaster General,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

S i r:-

Although I had not received from you any request for suggestions, as to the Post Office at Quebradillas, P. R., something that was done during the incumbency of Dr. Work, I take the liberty of recommending for the appointment as such a Postmaster, the name of FELIX PRIETO HERNANDEZ, of Quebradillas, a young man of good education, who knows English and has had previous experience in office.

I am enclosing herewith a copy of a letter which I am writing to-day, at his request, to the Governor of P. R.

Respectfully,

Abril 10, 1922.

Sr. D. Anselmo Prieto Gaavedra,
Apartado No. 46,
QUEBRADILLAS, P. R.

Mi estimado amigo:-

Refiriéndome a su carta de 27 próximo pasado Marzo, referente al puesto de Postmaster de Quebradillas, que ha sido elevado a la categoría de 3a. clase, necesitando nuevo nombramiento por el Presidente por cuatro años, tengo el honor de participarle que con esta fecha envío el nombre de su señor hijo, FELIX PRIETO HERNANDEZ, recomendando que sea nombrado para dicho puesto.

De Ud. muy atentamente,
