DIVISION OF
POSTMASTERS' APPOINTMENTS

IN REPLYING
REFER TO INITIALS AND DATE
AP

Post Office Department

FIRST ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL

Washington

May27, 1921.

Hon. R. H. Todd,
Congress Hall Hotel,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Todd:

The term of the postmaster at Yauco, Porto Rico, has expired and it is therefore necessary to make another appointment in the case. I shall be pleased to give careful consideration to any recommendation which you may desire to submit relative to another appointment of postmaster in this case.

Very truly yours,

First Assistant Postmaster General.

Bo15

May 23,
1921.

Hon. Hubert Work,
First Assistant Postmaster General.
Washington, D.C.

My dear Dr. Work:

Replying to your communication of the 27th instant, in which you state that the term of the postmaster at Yauco, Porto Rico, has expired and it is therefore necessary to make another appointment and you shall be pleased to give careful consideration to any recommendation which I may desire to submit relative to another appointment of postmaster in this case; I beg to recommend that Simon Benidei, the present incumbent in this office, be appointed for another term.

Very truly yours,