OFFICE,
289 FOURTH AVENUE,
KENNEDY BUILDING,

New York, Jan. 27, 1899

Mr. R. H. Todd,

27 Cruz St., San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Dear Sir:-- Yours of the 19th came to hand this afternoon.

Pardon me for asking you to re-read my letter of the 22. While we may have only sent you four blanks it was never intended that the Puerto Ricans should be limited to four allotments. We enclose herewith twenty-five additional blank applications; please furnish General Eaton and General Henry each with a portion of these blanks and say to them that it will give us great pleasure to aid in advancing the educational interests of any worthy Puerto Rican they will recommend as a proper beneficiary of the educational institutions in the United States.

The same offer also is made not only to you but to any of the military or several commandants or members of their staff or reputable citizens who in sincerity are willing to aid meritorious Puerto Ricans to complete their education in the United States.

Awaiting your further communications,

I am, dear Sir,

Yours respectfully,

G. K. Harroun
Secretary.

P.S. If each young man could forward a photograph with their application we would be very glad to receive them.
