My Dear Mr. Todd:

Enclosed please find copy of Call this day issued for the meeting of the Committee. You will notice it convenes the Committee earlier in the week than four years ago, in the hope that sufficient time may be given to hear and determine the contests deliberately, and if possible to avoid the necessity of holding night sessions.

It is important that every member of the Committee be present, as all contests should be heard by the full Committee. If for any reason you cannot come, you can use the enclosed proxy, sending some one to represent you, or forwarding it to the Officers of the Committee.

Please advise whether or not you will attend the meeting. Please also give your Chicago address and let us know where the headquarters of your delegation will be.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Todd:-

I beg to call your attention to my former letter (which you have likely overlooked replying to) in reference to a pen and ink sketch of yourself to be incorporated in the Official Order of Business and Proceedings for the coming Convention.

Eleven members of the National Committee have already authorized this drawing, and I enclose you herewith samples of those that have been finished for Hon. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and Hon. S. A. Perkins of Washington and Hon. T. Coleman du Pont of Delaware that you may see the class of work that is being done.

As the time is now getting short I would suggest your early attention.

Respectfully yours,

John A. Jaggart

Official Call for the Republican National Convention
To be held June 18, 1912

TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF THE UNITED STATES:

In accordance with established custom and in obedience to instructions of the Republican National Convention of 1908, the Republican National Committee now directs that a National Convention of delegated representatives of the Republican Party be held in the City of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, at 12 o'clock noon, on Tuesday, the 18th day of June, 1912, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President, to be voted for at the Presidential Election on Tuesday, November 5th, 1912, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

The Republican electors of the several states and territories, including the District of Columbia, Alaska, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands, and all other electors without regard to past political affiliation, who believe in the principles of the Republican party and endorse its policies, are cordially invited to unite under this call in the selection of delegates to said convention. Said National Convention shall consist of four delegates-at-large from each State, and two delegates-at-large for each representative-at-large in the Congress, two delegates from each Congressional District, six delegates from each of the Territories, and two delegates each from the District of Columbia, Alaska, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands. For each delegate elected to this Convention an alternate delegate shall be chosen who shall serve in case of the absence of his principal.

The delegates-at-large and their alternates shall be elected by popular State and Territorial Conventions called by the Republican State or Territorial Committee, of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been published in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the respective State or Territory.

The Congressional District delegates shall be elected by conventions called by the Republican Congressional Committee of each District, of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been published in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the District; provided that in any Congressional District where there is no Republican Congressional Committee, the Republican State Committee shall be substituted for and represent the Congressional Committee in issuing said call and making said publication; and, provided that delegates or their alternates shall be deemed ineligible to participate in State or District or Territorial Convention who were elected prior to the date of the adoption of this call; and, provided that delegates and alternates, both from the State at large and from each Congressional District may be elected in conformity with the laws of the State in which the election occurs if the State Committee or any such Congressional Committee so direct; but, provided further that in no State shall an election be so held as to prevent the delegates from any Congressional District and their alternates being selected by the Republican electors of that District.

The election of delegates from the District of Columbia shall be held under the direction and supervision of an Election Board composed of Messrs. Leonard P. Bradshaw, John Lewis Smith and Andrew J. Thomas, of the District of Columbia. This Board shall have authority to fix the date of said election, subject to prior provision herein, and to arrange all details incident thereto; and shall provide for a registration of the votes cast, such registration to include the name and residence of each voter.

The delegates from the Territories and Alaska shall be selected in the manner of electing delegates-at-large from the State as provided herein.

The delegates from Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands shall be elected in conformity with certain rules and regulations adopted by this Committee, copies of which are to be furnished to the Governing Committee of the Republican Party in Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands.

All delegates shall be elected not earlier than thirty days after the date of this call and not later than thirty days before the date of the meeting of the Republican National Convention, for which this call is issued, unless otherwise provided by the laws of a State.

The credentials of each delegate and alternate must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Republican National Committee at Chicago, Illinois, at least twenty days before the date fixed for the meeting of the Convention, for use in making up the temporary roll. Where more than the authorized number of delegates are reported to the Secretary of the National Committee a contest shall be deemed to exist, and the Secretary shall notify the several delegates so reported and shall submit all such credentials and claims to the whole Committee for decision as to which delegates reported shall be placed on the temporary roll of the Convention.

All notices of contest shall be submitted in writing accompanied by printed statement setting forth the ground of contest which must be filed with the Secretary of the Committee twenty days prior to the meeting of the National Convention.

In promulgating this call the Secretary of the Republican National Committee is directed to send a copy of it to the member of the National Committee of each State, and enclose therewith a copy of the call for the Chairman and Secretary of the State Executive Committee to be forwarded to said Chairman and Secretary by the member of the National Committee.

JOHN F. HILL, Chairman.
WILLIAM HAYWARD, Secretary.
