Hon. Roberto H. Todd,
San Juan, Porto Rico.

Dear Mr. Committeeman:

Is there any possibility of your coming to New York this summer? I should like very much to have a talk with you regarding the coming presidential campaign, in which I expect to take an active part. I hope you will not overlook the importance of starting in ample time to arrange for a sympathetic delegation from Porto Rico. The campaign for delegates has opened here much earlier than usual and the interest is becoming quite intense. It looks as if we might have quite a lively National Convention with a good many candidates for the nomination. The general feeling seems to be that the Republican Party will win next time. I certainly hope so.

Please let me hear from you.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

My dear Mr. Hitchcock:

I am just in receipt of your letter of June 28, 1919, which have given me a good deal of pleasure.

It will be possible that I may be in New York very soon, if only for a short trip. I will let you know in time so as to have a chat about the coming convention.

We are looking forward to the coming campaign and my friends are enthusiastic about sending a delegation which will respond, as usual, to the best aims of the Party.

I was in New York in January, and inquired about you and was told that you were somewhere in Mexico. I visited the Committee, both in New York and Washington, and had long chats with Hays and Reynolds and others friends.

Hoping to see you some time in the near future, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
