New York Nov. 15th/98.

My dear General Brooke:

The bearer of this letter Mr. P. H. Todd was the Secretary of the Porto Rican Revolutionary Party of New York. I take pleasure in commending him to your courtesy. Mr. Todd rendered us very useful service in connection with preparing our Porto Rico campaign, and is therefore entitled to such recognition as can be properly given him. He is well acquainted with the Island and its past history, and I believe can be of service to you.

Faithfully yours.
(signed) Theodore Roosevelt.

Maj. Gen.
John R. Brooke.
