FIRST ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL

Washington

January 15, 1923.

Hon. R. H. Todd,

San Juan, Porto Rico.

My dear Mr. Todd:

Mrs. Maria McC. Serrano has resigned as postmaster at Punta Santiago, Porto Rico, and as she has been obliged to leave immediately on account of her husband's health she asks to be officially released from further connection with the post office. She states that she has left the office to the care of Antonio Garcia Marrexo.

I shall be pleased to consider any suggestions you care to make at your early convenience with reference to the appointment of a postmaster at Punta Santiago.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Bartlett
First Assistant Postmaster General.

Hon. R. H. Todd,
The Chastleton,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Todd:

Mrs. Maria McC. Serrano tendered her resignation as postmaster at Punta Santiago, Porto Rico, under date of December 28, and at that time expressed a desire to be released on account of her husband's health. She is again asking to be released at once from further connection with the post office.

I shall therefore be pleased to consider at an early date any suggestions you care to make with reference to the appointment of a postmaster at Punta Santiago.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Bartlett
First Assistant Postmaster General.

IMPORTANTE.

El medio más rápido y más seguro de tramitar sus negociaciones es el telégrafo. Si usted desea consultar, tramitar o resolver un mismo asunto con diez o más personas en una o más ciudades de la isla, al mismo tiempo, se ahorra tiempo y dinero poniendo un solo TELEGRAMA MULTIPLE. Y si tiene interés en que una carta llegue bien y pronto a su destino, mándela por telégrafo como CARTA NOCTURNA. Llame a la oficina del telégrafo pidiendo informes sobre estos particulares: será atendido al momento.
