My dear Mr. Todd:

The post office at Guayanilla, Porto Rico, was advanced to the third class on January 1, 1922, necessitating the appointment of a postmaster by the President for a four year term.

I shall be glad to hear from you promptly regarding this case.

Sincerely yours,

George B. Long

Acting First Assistant Postmaster General.

February 6, 1922.

Hon. Hubert Work,
First Assts. Postmaster General,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

My dear Dr. Work:

Replying to your communication of January 24, 1922 AP, notifying me that the Post Office at Guayanilla, P. R., was advanced to the 3d. class on January 1st. 1922, necessitating the appointment of a Postmaster by the President for a four year term and asking me to make suggestions in the premises, I beg to state that from information received from friends I understand that Miss Leonor de Lucca, the present Postmaster, is a very efficient young lady and I hereby beg to recommend that she be appointed for the position.

Respectfully,
